

Jim Griffith

Author of "The 10 Most Common Mistakes New Starts Make," Jim is the Founder of Griffith Coaching Network. A veteran of 6 church plants, Jim focuses on assessing, training, and coaching new church starts and has worked in over 48 Annual Conferences. He is a graduate of The University of Florida and Trinity Evangelical Divinity School and resides in Denver, CO. www.griffithcoaching.com.

Nora Martinez

Associate Director of the Office of New Church Development in the North Georgia Conference since 2001, Nora coordinates the development of new congregations with immigrant populations by providing a supportive framework of advice and training to enable leadership to reach the immigrant population. Successful New Starts require adequate preparation, knowledge of the mission field, and trained, skilled leaders. Nora is a graduate of Northern Baptist Theological Seminary and Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary. Together with other Latino pastors, Nora revised, adapted, and translated the Boot Camp material for the Latino context. She resides in Atlanta with her daughter Claudia.

This will be the third Hispanic Boot Camp that Jim and Nora have offered in Atlanta and is the first 3-day Hispanic Boot Camp.
